Mark Stamp is a consulting partner in the London office of Milbank LLP and a member of the firm's Corporate Group.

Primary Focus & Experience

Mark's practice covers a broad range of international and domestic corporate, M&A and securities work. Mark advises on complex, cross-border public and private mergers & acquisitions, joint ventures, private equity, equity capital markets, restructurings, corporate governance and general corporate law matters.

Mark's more recent transactional experience includes advising:

- Piraeus Bank on the carve-out and sale of a majority stake in its non-performing exposures servicing unit to Intrum, including the negotiation of associated long-term servicing agreements and shareholder arrangements governing the parties' ongoing strategic relationship in Greece.
- Eurobank Ergasias SA in connection with the acquisition by Eurobank's Bulgarian subsidiary Postbank of Piraeus Bank Bulgaria AD - the Bulgarian subsidiary of fellow Greek lender Piraeus Bank SA, to create the third largest bank in Bulgaria
- KKCG in its tender offer for Greece's largest listed company, OPAP (gaming), valuing the target in excess of $3 billion;
- Advising the Bank of America, Barclays and UBS in providing committed bank and bridge financing for the recommended takeover offer for Inmarsat plc.
- Advising Apleona Limited, an EQT VII portfolio company, in relation to the sale of GVA, a leading independent real estate advisor in the UK, to Avison Young (Canada) Inc., a Canada-based commercial real estate firm.
- EQT on the acquisition of the SUSE business segment from Micro Focus International plc, for a total cash consideration of approx. US $2.5 billion.
- Arcapita on the sale of Freightliner Group for £525 million.
- Revlon Inc., in connection with its acquisition of all of the outstanding shares of Elizabeth Arden
