Jordan Simpson is a partner in the London office of Milbank LLP and a member of the firm's Global Corporate Group.

Primary Focus & Experience

Mr. Simpson's practice focuses on private equity transactions. He represents a broad range of private equity houses, financial sponsors and other stakeholders on corporate transactions of all types – from private acquisitions, leveraged buyouts, minority investing, consortium deals and portfolio company bolt-ons, through to full, partial and staged exits. Jordan has extensive experience of complex carve-outs and schemes of arrangement in the private equity sphere, and regularly advises clients across a variety of sectors and geographies.

Select highlights of his transactions include the representation of:

- Charterhouse Capital Partners on the sale of SLR Consulting to Ares*
- Vitruvian Partners on the sale of IFGL to Cinven*
- Compass Partners on the sale of Infinitas Learning to NPM Capital*
- Vitruvian Partners on its co-investment in CFC Underwriting alongside EQT*
- The founders and controlling shareholders of Third Bridge on a significant minority investment by Astorg*
- PA Consulting on its novel private equity-style partnership with Jacobs Engineering Group*
- Actis on its assumption of management rights in a number of Abraaj funds, including Abraaj Private Equity Fund IV, a global buyout fund, and Abraaj Africa Fund III, a fund for investment in sub-Saharan Africa*
- The founders and controlling shareholders of Acturis on a significant minority investment by Astorg*
