Andrew Nuthall is a partner in the London office of Milbank LLP and a member of the firm's Global Corporate Group.

Primary Focus & Experience

Andrew's practice focuses on private equity related transactions, including the related management incentive plans. He represents a broad range of private equity clients, financial sponsors and their portfolio companies on a broad range of corporate transactions – from private M&A, leveraged buyouts, co-control and minority investments and related management incentive plans to restructurings and exit transactions. Andrew has extensive experience in buy and build and carve-out transaction strategies and regularly advises clients across a variety of sectors and geographies.

Selected highlights of his transactions include the representation of:

- Compass Partners on the sale of Rodenstock to Apax Partners
- Investindustrial on its investment in Atida, a European online pharmacy business
- Charterhouse and Tunstall on the restructuring of the Tunstall Group
- Mount Anvil in buying out Ares Capital Management from a JV interest in its group
- VetPartners on the divestment of certain businesses necessary to comply with undertakings given to the CMA
- A&M Capital in implementing a management incentive plan for Pet Network International
- Investindustrial in the acquisition of Morgan Motor Cars
- Growth Capital Partners and other shareholders in the sale of Chaucer Consulting to BIP Consulting*
