Morgan Williams is an associate in the New York office of Milbank LLP and a member of the firm's Litigation & Arbitration Group.

Primary Focus & Experience

Ms. Williams's practice focuses on complex commercial litigation. She has trial experience in both the Southern District of New York and the Delaware Court of Chancery.

Ms. Williams represents Broadcast Music, Inc. in rate-setting litigations and other disputes. Ms. Williams was a member of the team that obtained a trial victory against the North American Concert Promoter Association. She is currently representing Broadcast Music, Inc. in a rate setting case to establish licensing fees for commercial broadcast radio stations across the country, among other disputes with music users.

Most recently, Ms. Williams was a member of a team that represented subsidiaries of Universal Entertainment Corporation in a busted-deal SPAC litigation in the Delaware Court of Chancery. The case went to trial in July 2023 and a decision is pending.
