Casey Fleck is a partner in the firm's Global Corporate Group. Casey has extensive experience in a broad range of corporate transactions, including public and private securities offerings, corporate restructurings, recapitalizations, mergers and acquisitions, tender offers and consent solicitations.

Primary Focus & Experience

Casey regularly represents public and private companies, investment banks and private equity funds, and he has a solid track record of advising on successful initial public offerings and an array of high-yield, investment grade bond and convertible debt offerings representing both banks and issuers.

Recognition & Accomplishments

Casey received his J.D. from the University of Southern California Gould School of Law, where he was Order of the Coif and was honored with the Law Alumni Award for highest GPA upon graduation. He clerked for the Hon. Charles E. Wiggins, United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit.

Casey has been repeatedly selected for inclusion in Chambers USA and Legal 500 US. He was named by the Daily Journal as one of the "Top 20 Under 40" lawyers in the state of California, one of the "40 Under 40" by M&A Advisor, one of the "Forty Under Forty" by Investment Dealers' Digest, a "world's leading debt and equity lawyer" by Who's Who Legal: Capital Markets: Debt and Equity, and a "Rising Star" by Super Lawyers. He has contributed to various publications, including co-authoring a chapter on "US and UK Tender Offers, Exchange Offers and Other Out-of-Court Restructurings" in The Law and Practice of Restructurings in the UK and US.
