Samir L. Vora is a partner in the Litigation & Arbitration Group.

Primary Focus & Experience

Mr. Vora's practice focuses on restructuring, bankruptcy, and creditors' rights litigation. He has over fifteen years of experience representing debtors-in-possession, creditors' committees, ad hoc committees, and other interested parties in connection with litigation issues arising out of main bankruptcy cases and adversary proceedings. Mr. Vora also regularly represents boards and committees in conducting internal and independent investigations.

Recognition & Accomplishments

Mr. Vora was recognized several times as a Southern California Super Lawyer Rising Star. Mr. Vora has been routinely recognized for his commitment to pro bono work, including by the Disability Rights Legal Center for his efforts in obtaining special education services for eligible inmates in County jail. Mr. Vora also received multiple Pro Bono Achievement Awards for his representation of the wrongfully incarcerated, chapter 7 debtors against predatory lenders, and The Humane Society of the United States in a case concerning the fraudulent sale of beef from sick and disabled animals to the United States Department of Agriculture for supply to the National School Lunch Program and other federal food programs, which led to the largest beef recall in US history.
