Carolina Walther-Meade is a partner in the New York office of Milbank and a member of the firm's Project, Energy and Infrastructure Finance and Latin America Practice Groups.

Primary Focus & Experience

Ms. Walther-Meade has extensive experience in cross-border financings and international project finance and development, with an emphasis on oil and gas, infrastructure, mining and energy projects throughout Latin America. She has also been involved in numerous multi-jurisdictional acquisition financings and structured financings in the region. Her practice includes representation of commercial bank syndicates, multilateral and export credit agencies and other lenders, as well as corporate developers and industrial groups. She spent one and a half years with Milbank based out of Brazil and continues to spend a significant amount of time in our São Paulo office.

Her recent representations include:

- lenders on range of mining projects in Chile, the Dominican Republic and Mexico
- sponsors in a variety of toll road and other transportation infrastructure projects in Peru, Panama and Mexico
- providers of financing in numerous acquisitions in Latin America
- parties in energy-related projects throughout the region
