

Valued by Our Clients and Consistently Ranked Among the Top 10 Firms for Revenue, Profitability & Compensation

Our leading position among the world's most successful and profitable law firms reflects our skill at delivering on complex, high-stakes work for our clients. It allows us to reinvest in our lawyers and our globally respected practices, giving us the flexibility to grow in innovative areas and drive the industry forward. Most importantly, it empowers a strong and collaborative culture committed to developing our people and giving back to our communities.

75 HOURS

annual pro bono work per attorney

While we are one of few firms to hold each attorney to the high standard of 25 hours minimum per year, our average is much higher

3 YEARS

of training at Harvard

Each mid-level associate attends our professional development program taught on campus by Harvard Business and Law School faculty

$190K

starting salary for associates

We raised the Big Law pay scale and increased associates' starting salaries

#6 IN ASSOCIATE SATISFACTION

We led in The American Lawyer's 2018 Mid-Level Associates Survey

55 HUDSON YARDS

Our new award-winning, state-of-the-art NYC headquarters features amenities and resources customized for our attorneys

1992

We were among the first elite firms to establish a Diversity Committee

Learn more about opportunities at Milbank: