Marceline B. Tempesta is special counsel in the New York office of Milbank and a member of the firm's Trusts, Estates and Exempt Organizations Group.

Primary Focus & Experience

Ms. Tempesta's practice focuses on the formation and representation of tax-exempt organizations, including public charities, private foundations, and social welfare organizations. Ms. Tempesta regularly advises such organizations with regard to compliance with state and federal tax laws, the structuring of complex philanthropic joint ventures, ongoing administration and best practices, governance, the drafting and negotiation of grant agreements, issues relating to foreign grantmaking and activity, lobbying and issue advocacy, program-related investments and mission related investing, and issues relating to unrelated business income tax and the structuring of taxable and nontaxable subsidiaries. Ms. Tempesta also advises individual and institutional donors with regard to issues relating to charitable giving both in the US and abroad.

Ms. Tempesta's practice also includes the representation of individuals and families with respect to complex estate planning (including gift, estate, generation-skipping transfer tax and philanthropic planning). She advises individuals and their families with respect to a variety of domestic and international estate and charitable planning matters and represents owners of closely-held businesses, hedge fund and private equity fund managers, and other wealthy individuals (both domestic and foreign).
