A distinguished restructuring practitioner, author and speaker, Dennis Dunne is a partner in the New York office of Milbank. He is a member of the firm's Global Executive Committee and has served in that position since 2008. He also serves as the Global Chair of the firm's Financial Restructuring Group.

Primary Focus & Experience

Mr. Dunne has extensive experience in representing companies and creditors in reorganization cases and out-of-court workouts, acquirors of financially distressed companies, providers of financing, and board of directors of public and private companies. Mr. Dunne plays a leadership role in these matters, frequently as counsel to companies or official and unofficial committees representing key creditor constituencies, such as bondholders, agents for lender syndicates, and large debt or equity holders. He also regularly represents private equity funds, hedge funds and other financial institutions acquiring control positions in financially distressed companies, both in and out of court. In all such matters, he is a trusted advisor to his clients and draws upon his broad experience across several disciplines to craft practical solutions and build the consensus required to implement those solutions. Mr. Dunne also has unparalleled courtroom experience and clients seek him out for his in-court advocacy skills. His engagements have ranged across a wide array of industries, including automotive, airline, apparel, cable and broadcasting, chemical, construction, gaming, healthcare, housing, infrastructure, manufacturing, pharmaceutical, energy, retail, shipping, telecommunications, and textiles.

Industry Recognition, Accomplishments & Client Testimonials

Mr. Dunne is a Fellow and served as the Second Circuit Regent in the American College of Bankruptcy, and he frequently speaks on restructuring and related topics at conferences around the country. He is a Fellow in the International Insolvency Institute, and has been elected as Conferee to the National Bankruptcy Conference (NBC), a non-partisan organization of approximately sixty leading bankruptcy lawyers, law professors and judges selected to advise Congress on bankruptcy law and policy. Mr. Dunne currently serves on the Executive Committee of the NBC. He is also a member of the Federal Bar Council.

Mr. Dunne is a co-author of an article in Practical Law's global guide titled "Restructuring and insolvency in the United States: overview." He is also a co-author of Collier on Bankruptcy, the preeminent treatise in bankruptcy law, and he recently co-authored a chapter entitled "Evaluating strategic debt buybacks: How to pursue effective de-leveraging strategies" in Navigating Today's Environment: The Directors' and Officers' Guide to Restructuring. Mr. Dunne is also co-author of "The Art of the Pre-Pack." He is a frequent speaker at conferences sponsored by the American Bankruptcy Institute, the National Conference of Bankruptcy Judges and other organizations.

Mr. Dunne has garnered praise from clients who describe him as "perhaps the leading practitioner in the field – he is very creative and gets great results, and does so efficiently, which is what clients like to see." Clients have described him as a "[s]uperb practitioner," "quite simply a great lawyer - he's intelligent, practical and a pleasure to work with." He is "in a word – fabulous." "His knowledge and insight allow him to control the table." According to clients, "he is extremely knowledgeable, creative, and responsive," and "can see around corners and provide great advice" "He is commercially minded and gives the practical business perspective." "He is a smart and talented attorney, a tough adversary, and he knows how to get a restructuring done efficiently and get the best outcome for the client." "He is the perfect combination of smart and practical, with an ability to get things done despite difficult circumstances and personalities." "He brings masterful judgment and has a wealth of experience, and applies it well to every situation. You can rely on his advice because he has such gravitas." Clients appreciate that "he knows how to dissect complex issues to find the right resolution and is great at big-picture thinking." (Chambers USA). Clients have also recognized him for his "extensive legal knowledge, and an exceptional ability to recall detail." (The Legal 500).

Mr. Dunne is currently listed in Chambers Global, Chambers USA (Band One), Legal 500 (Hall of Fame), The World's Leading Lawyers for Business, Lawdragon 500, The Best Lawyers in America, The K&A Register of the Leading Bankruptcy and Financial Restructuring Lawyers and Financial Advisors, IFLR 1000, Benchmark Litigation, Legal 500 and Turnaround & Workouts Top Restructuring Lawyers of 2008, 2011 and 2014.
