Freddie Fisk is an associate in Milbank's London office and a member of the firm's Litigation & Arbitration Group.

Primary Focus & Experience

Freddie has experience in complex commercial litigation before the English Courts, international arbitration and regulatory investigations. He has assisted with the following matters:

- Acting for Visa in Competition Appeal Tribunal proceedings relating to alleged infringements of competition law arising from the implementation of interchange fees associated with the use of debit and credit cards.
- Acting for a defendant in a High Court claim brought by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation on behalf of several closed US banks in relation to alleged infringements of competition law and misrepresentations arising out of the setting of USD LIBOR.
- Representing a FTSE 100-listed private equity firm in a high-profile shareholder dispute relating to a substantial investment in the technology sector (cited by The Lawyer as one of the Top 20 cases of 2025).
- Acting for a global healthcare company in disputes relating to the construction of a medical facility in the United States (subject to arbitration in California).*
- Representing a health technology company in disputes relating to the construction of a high-tech manufacturing facility in Southeast Asia (subject to arbitration in London).*
- Providing pro bono advice to a client on the possibility of bringing a claim against a well-known sports club in relation to potential breaches of the Modern Slavery Act 2015.
- Providing pro bono advice to a client on the procedures of the United Nations Human Rights Committee in relation to a claim brought against the state of Honduras.
- Advising one of the main parties in the Competition and Markets Authority's ongoing investigation into veterinary services for household pets.

*Work undertaken prior to joining Milbank.
