Annis Easton is an associate in Milbank's London office and a member of the firm's Litigation & Arbitration Group.

Primary Focus & Experience

During Annis's two-year training contract with the firm, she gained a wide range of contentious and transactional experience, completing seats in Litigation & Arbitration, Competition (Antitrust), Corporate and Leveraged Finance.

She has also assisted with the following matters:

- Acting for Visa in Competition Appeal Tribunal proceedings relating to alleged infringements of competition law arising from the implementation of interchange fees associated with the use of debit and credit cards.
- Advising Oaktree Capital Management on acquiring ownership of Inter Milan Football Club.
- Advising one of the main parties in the Competition and Markets Authority's ongoing market investigation into veterinary services for household pets.
- Advising Investindustrial on the acquisition of DCC plc's healthcare division.
- Advising aircraft lessors and lessees on developments in EU and UK sanctions in the context of lease agreements.
- Providing pro bono advice to a client on the possibility of bringing a claim against a well-known sports club in relation to potential breaches of the Modern Slavery Act 2015.
- Acting pro bono for a client in an unpaid wages case before the Employment Tribunal.

Recognition & Accomplishments

Annis holds double first-class honours in Classics from the University of Oxford and achieved a distinction in both the GDL and LPC at the University of Law.
