Jenna is special counsel in the Global Project, Energy and Infrastructure Finance Group in London with significant experience advising project sponsors, borrowers and lenders (including export credit agencies, multi-laterals and development finance institutions as well as commercial lenders) in relation to the development and financing of large scale, complex and often “first-of-a-kind” projects. Jenna’s experience includes advising on both project and finance documents across a broad range of industry sectors and geographies.

Primary Focus & Experience

Representative matters include advising:

- ECAs and commercial banks in relation to the 262.5MW Gabal wind farm in Egypt;
- the lenders and EIB on the restructuring of the Damietta LNG project in Egypt;
- the sponsors, Mitsubishi Heavy Industries, Ltd, ITOCHU and GDF Suez on the negotiation, development and financing of the Sinop Nuclear Power Project in Turkey including the negotiation of EPC arrangements;
- Bendis in relation to the Gazdepo and Toren underground gas storage projects in Tarsus, Turkey including the negotiation of EPC arrangements for the construction of the storage facilities;
- IFC, UKEF and a commercial bank group led by HSBC, ING, Société Générale and Standard Chartered Bank as the lenders on the financing of Vitol’s participation in the US$7.9 bn Offshore Cape Three Points (OCTP) oil and gas field project involving the development of the Sankofa-Gye Nyame fields in Ghana;
- JBIC, PIF and the lenders on Phase II of Sumitomo Corporation’s US$5.2 billion expansion project for the PetroRabigh Refining and Petrochemicals Project in Saudi Arabia;
- the project company, on SEC’s US$2 billion Riyadh PP-11 IPP. The financing comprised commercial bank lenders, two senior Islamic tranches and a direct loan from US Ex-Im, as well as equity bridge financing including an Islamic Murabaha tranche; and
- the lenders supporting a bid for the Bahrain LNG regasification project.
